the Tom Healy's Amalfi, which won in a hard drive from Little Nearer. Harry Shaw and Thornhill made the early pace, but at the head of the stretch tharry Shaw dropped back heaten and the filed closing on Thornhill sent him to a drive. Amalfi, under McCahey's austling ride, come through and standing off Little Nearer's challenge and wen by a fair marght.

The steeplechase went to Gregs, but Mr. Ross was lucky to get the purse as 'Single Stock was the best horse. Going over the hurdle in the stretch, while in the lead, the Davis bay jumped sideways and unscated his rider, letting Gregg come on to an easy victory.

CARNES ELECTED MANAGER OF SHIPBUILDERS' TEAM

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., November 12.—Carl Carnes, leading first baseman in the Virginia League during the gast season, was this afternoon elected manager of the Shipbuilders for next year. Harry Lee Spratt, the former Boston Brave, who managed the club for the tail end of the season, and who was to have piloted the club during 1915, notified the owners of the team several days ago that business matters would require so much of his time that he would not be able to play professional baseball.

Carnes, who is one of the most pop-baseball.

Carnes, who is one of the most popular ball players that has ever worn a Newport News uniform, and who earned the sobriquet of "Rubber Man" by his ability to reach out and get them at first, applied for the vacancy. His selection as leader, of the Shipbulders is received with general satisfaction by the fans.
